

We are excited about the opportunity to utilize these resources to develop priorities and key activities for Columbia County Public Health. At this time, we are focused on building the internal capacity to complete the work in our communities. We will utilize these resources to complete strategic planning and visioning and develop adequate staffing, so the LPHA is positioned to work on the public health foundational capabilities.